

CAMP HOLY WILD

CAMP POLICIES

Most guests do not need rules and regulations. We believe that problems occur from thoughtlessness and ignorance rather than malicious intent. Our guidelines are reasonable and the policies are designed to protect all guests and to preserve our facilities. The goal of Camp Holy Wild is to help our guests enjoy their visit rather than to enforce rules and regulations. We require camp directors, group leaders and sponsors to see that these few simple guidelines are followed.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Camp Directors must provide the camp with a schedule for their planned activities two weeks prior to arrival.
- All groups must notify the camp office upon arrival and provide the following:
